

Francophone Day 20th March

To celebrate the French Language we will serve a dish from a French Speaking Country on each day this week!

Monday

Europe - Switzerland

Brunli (Swiss Chocolate Cookies)

Tuesday

Asia - Vietnam

Banh Mi

(Baguette filled with Ground Pork, Spices, Pickles & Coriander)

Wednesday

Africa - Morocco

Chicken & Chickpea Tagine with Couscous

Thursday

South America - French Guiana

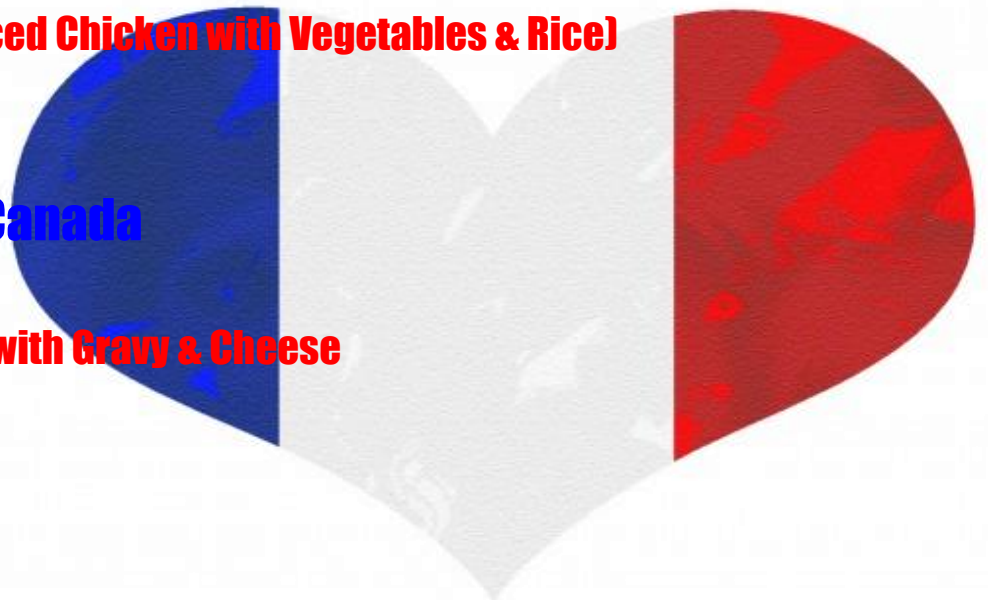

Poulet Colombo (Spiced Chicken with Vegetables & Rice)

Friday

North America - Canada

Poutine

French Fries Topped with Gravy & Cheese

My name is:

Francophone Food Scavenger hunt quiz

Have a look at the information around the dining area, then write your answers in the table below.

Which French speaking country do the letters spell?

All entries will be put in a box for a prize draw. If your entry is the first to be pulled out with a correct answer you can win first prize! Bonus prizes will be given to the next 5 entries drawn out based on how many ingredients they have listed in the Bonus Round.

Dish	Letter of photo/ description	Bonus round: note down as many ingredients in the dish in French or English (UKS2 should try and list them in both languages!)
Brunsli
Banh mi
Tajine marocaine
Poulet Colombo
Poutine
The mystery French speaking country is:

N - Un plat originaire du Québec et très apprécié de tous les Canadiens. Il s'agit de frites mélangées à du fromage en grains et nappées d'une sauce brune.

G - Il s'agit de biscuits au chocolat et à la cannelle, un plat croustillant et délicieux.

O - .Un plat antillais mijoté à base de viande et de légumes, le tout parfumé d'un mélange d'épices : la poudre à colombo. (Coriandre, curcuma, piment doux, cumin, fenugrec, gingembre, sel, poivre.)

B - plat avec un tajine aux pois chiches, abricots , couscous, délicieusement parfumé aux épices à la fois douces, chaudes et réconfortantes.

A Ce plat est un sandwich épicé d'origine vietnamienne et garni de concombre et de carottes marinés, de dinde et d'une sauce relevée.